The Henry Lawson Festival

The Henry Lawson Festival is an annual event held in Grenfell, NSW on the June long weekend. Grenfell is the birthplace of Henry Lawson, one of Australia's best loved poets and writer of short stories. The Festival is one of the longest running arts events in NSW and 2016 sees it celebrate its 59th year. The theme for the 2016 festival is 'THE ROARING DAYS; A Trip through the Decades'.

Each year there is a street procession which is one of the highlights of the festival. A range of floats are prepared in the months leading up to the festival by local organisation including school and service clubs

This year we have decided to dress up in the 60,s rock and roll. And walk behind the Grenfell Preschool and Long Day Care Centres banner. We are asking you all to join in with us dress up in the 60.s rock and roll outfits. Start thinking about what to wear and have it all ready for the day
